

Inverse Problems and Imaging will publish in 2009 a special issue dedicated to Professors David Colton and Rainer Kress in recognition of their international leadership and outstanding scientific achievements in the area of inverse scattering theory. Fioralba Cakoni, Housseem Haddar and Michele Piana are the guest editors of this special issue. The issue will feature original research papers in the area of inverse problems.